The Vermont State Poultry Association has engaged the services of George H. Northrup of Racine, N. Y., as one of the judges at the state association's show to be held in St. Albans during the first week in January. The estimation to which Mr. Northrup is held is shown by the fact that the American Black Minorca Club of the United States and Canada chose Mr. Northrup as the judge for its poultry show to be held in Chicago during January, by 35 out of a possible 48 votes.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last evening the hall was filled to witness a most interesting program, which far exceeded those of previous evenings of St. Monica's fair. The piano duet by the Misses Carson was rendered in a very brilliant manner. The drill by the fourteen young misses, Mary Dringgold, Helen Shannon, Mildred Rooney, Nellie Brown, Mary Carroll, Florence Bergeron, Mamie Nelson, B. Griffin, D. Holland, B. Rook, May McKernan, Georgia Bergeron, Lillian Birny, Jennie McKernan, who moved so gracefully to the strains of the grand opening march, which was artistically played by Miss Alice Smith, was very pretty. March, "Salute to America" by Russell Hoyt, was one of the principal features of the evening.

Cloths For Tailored Suits!

We have sold this season lots of Cloths for Ladies' Tailored Suits. Our proposition to the trade now is that they can have the balance of our Suing stock at less than cost. We are to close it all out in a few days. Not an old cloth in the lot. Prices as follows:

42-inch Black Undressed Worsted (sponged and shrunk) to close at 50c.

44-inch Black Undressed Worsted (sponged and shrunk) to close at 65c.

50-inch Black Pebbled Cheviot, the $1.25 cloth, to close at 87c.

54-inch All-wool Scotch Suitings in gray, brown and black mixtures. These cloths have been this season's leaders at $1.25. To close at 87c.

46-inch Black Pebbled Etonian, one of the leaders in black goods, at $1.00.

46-inch Zibelines in browns, navies and blacks. You know what these goods are. To close at $1.19.

50-inch Very Heavy Zibeline in navy, brown and grey, with dashes of white. This cloth is heavier than the others, being made especially for Ladies' Tailored Skirts. Sold all the season for $1.38. To close at 87c.

Three Suit Patterns that were $7.50 to close at $4.98.

Later we will tell you our reason for making such low prices on desirable Suitings. This sale usually comes in January.
